

Functional Materials hosted the 14th International Meeting on Chemical Sensors (IMCS 2012)

Department of Functional Materials hosted the world's largest conference in the field of chemical sensors, "The 14th International Meeting on Chemical Sensors" (May 20-23, 2012) in Nuremberg, Germany (IMCS 2012). About 570 participants from 43 countries were registered.

In five parallel sessions over 200 Talks were given and almost 300 posters were presented in five parallel sessions.

The organization team of the Dept. of Functional Materials would like to thank all participants and supporting people and organizations !!

For detailed information see :

www.imcs2012.de/

A detailed conference report in German can be found here:

www.uni-bayreuth.de/presse/Aktuelle-Infos/2012/208-IMCS.pdf